Damaging Evidence.

Frank Cecil, of Bell county, the recently surrendered fugitive, went on the witness stand, in the Jim Howard case, at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. Cecil told a remarkable tale. He told of meeting Powers on January 29, the day before the shooting of Goebel, and that Powers, and later Taylor, asked him to kill Goebel and offered him $2,500 and a full pardon if he would do it. The witness said he refused to do the killing, and that before he left Taylor's office the Governor told him that if he revealed what he had said to him he, the witness, would never live to tell it on the witness stand.

He said that in that conversation Power told him that he had arranged to have a man arrive the next day to do the killing, and that a man across the hall, meaning Henry Yontsey, had offered to do it, but that he, Powers, had refused to accept his offer. Yontsey was on the stand yesterday and said: "I took Howard into Caleb Powers' office and explained to him how Goebel was to be killed. I showed him the window he was to shoot from, showed him the Marlin rifle and the cartridges containing steel bullets and smokeless powder."

"We knew," said he, "that Goebel was to be killed and that we had the Governor and the pardoning power behind us in all we did. So we were not afraid. Taylor was legally and morally responsible for all we did or expected to do."

A Narrow Escape.

While engaged in demolishing the old Stevens building on Main street Tuesday morning Contractor Thos. Woods and three colored laborers—Wm. Jackson, George Liney and James Thompson—were badly injured about the head and shoulders by the collapse of the rear wall on which they were at work. The men were on the second story and were endeavoring to force the wall outward when it suddenly collapsed, precipitating them into the cellar 30 feet below. The entire wall fell in on them, but their lives were saved from the fact that the timbers formed an arch above them. The wounded men were removed to their homes. The building is being removed to make room for the new Elks' home.

Triumphal Tour.

Gov. Beckham's triumphant campaign in the Western part of the State shows that he is not strong only in spots, but everywhere. The people, the plain, common people, love him for the enemies he has made.

His trip is one triumphal tour. He is being welcomed with open arms along his route. Made speech at Madisonville, banqueted and feted at Henderson and enthusiastically received at all points.

The following is a list of his appointments:
Eddyville, April 17, afternoon.
Mayfield, April 18, night.
Fulton, April 18, night.
Afternoon appointments at 1:30 o'clock, night at 7:30.

CARNIVAL COMPANY COMING.—Mr. C. W. Manley, general agent for the "Dana Thompson Dixie Carnival Company," was in the city yesterday negotiating with the city fathers and a committee of merchants to have them bring the Carnival Company to Paris on May 18th for one week, this being the only open date he has. The company carries 7 cars of paraphernalia, 10 paid shows, 1 band of music and 100 people. This is, beyond a doubt, one of the largest and best carnival companies on the road. It will cost the city and the merchants comparatively nothing to get the big show and it would no doubt be a good thing for the city.

Va., where he led a German and last evening was the guest of Miss Wilson, in Charleston, who entertained Miss White, the daughter of Governor White, who will christen the battleship West Virginia, at Norfolk, this week. Miss Wilson will be first sponsor (maid of honor). Miss Wilson recently visited friends in Paris.

—The children of the Mission Band of the Christian church were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. R. B. Hatchcraft, on Monday afternoon, about thirty-five members being present. At the conclusion of the regular exercises, the children were invited to the dining room, where table decorations were pink and white. Under a pretty center piece were hidden small gifts appropriate for Easter, such as chickens and rabbits, which the children drew by the ribbons attached. After partaking of refreshments, and upon entering the hall again, they were introduced to the "Easter Lady," who greeted the children and presented them with Easter eggs from her pocket. This part of the program occasioned a great deal of merriment. After some games, they left in buoyant spirits, with a determination for better work in the future.

—After the quietude of the Lenten Season, society is again revived. The occasion was the season given last evening by the Jolly Fellowship Club, which was even a more brilliant affair than the first one. It could be appropriately called a Tissue Paper German and was planned and led by the Club's President, Mr. Oakford Hinton, who also made the odd and very attractive favors. The color scheme for the German was pink and white and was very beautifully carried out in the decorations, the hall was far more artistically and elaborately decorated than ever before, the ceiling was entirely concealed by ropes of pink and white paper shavings used in one of the most effective figures, an arch was formed over the platform by a lattice work of pink and white extended to the ceiling, the columns of which were banked with ferns, palms and Easter lilies, and behind this the music was stationed. The favors were placed on two tables which were connected by a bridge upon which was a tiny white Victoria, drawn by two rabbits and driven by a small white rabbit. This was filled with hand-painted Easter eggs. The favors were very gracefully distributed by Miss Lizzette Dickson and Miss Eva Freeman, of Lexington. The chaplains were Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Dickson, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Hinton, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Butler and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Yerkes.

Unique crepe baskets filled with candied eggs, rabbits concealing bon bon boxes filled with candy, paper bonnets for the ladies and hats for the gentlemen were among some of the prettiest favors. The lights were softened by dainty pink shades which was in harmony with the beautiful music and handsomely gowned ladies. Owing to a limited amount of space the list of the dancers is crowded over to next issue.

Shoe Styles for Spring.

Shiny Leathers, such as Patent Kid, Patent Colt, &c., are still very popular, and are much more reliable than formerly.

Higher heels are fashionable this season. The high leather "Cuban" heels and wood "French" heels are seen on a great many of the fine shoes for ladies' wear.

A very pretty Lace Shoe, for women, seen at Clay's Shoe Store is made of Patent Colt, with a medium, round toe, 1 1/4-inch "Cuban" heel and dull "Mat Kid" top. It is a beauty, and sells at $3.00.

A beautiful Oxford, for women, also seen at Clay's Shoe Store, is made of Patent Kid front part, dull "Mat Kid" quarter, 1 1/4-inch square metallic heel and welt extension soles. They have extra large eyelets, using a large ribbon lace, and it makes an extremely pretty street shoe. They sell for $3.00 a pair.
